

http://www.capenews.net/arts_and_entertainment/dinner-theater-at-the-dan-l-webster-features-jazz-performance/article_df7d8666-9a71-5a27-8945-d78c866b3f3e.html

Dinner Theater At The Dan'l Webster Features Jazz Performance

Jan 1, 2016

Home / Arts & Entertainment

Jazz singer Cerise Bynoe will present “Cerise & Friends: A Tribute to Black Jazz Artists” as a night of dinner theater at the De January 15. Joining Ms. Bynoe for several duets will be vocalist Anthony Teixeira.

Cotuit on the Road, the new joint venture between Cotuit Center for the Arts and Brave Horse Music, will bring “Cerise & Friends Presents A Tribute to Black Jazz Artists” to the Dan'l Webster Inn, on January 15. The show is the first in a winter dinner-theater music series. Subsequent shows will be “The Beat Goes On—A Musical Journey Through the ‘60s” on February 5, and “What The World Needs Now—A Musical Tribute to Burt Bacharach” on March 25.

Jazz singer Cerise Bynoe will honor some of the greatest women and men in jazz in this passionate and soulful tribute to black legends Ella Fitzgerald, Billie Holiday, Nat King Cole, Ray Charles, and Sarah Vaughan as well as present-day jazz singers Anita Baker, Gladys Knight and Diana Reeves. All of these performers are credited with inspiring Ms. Bynoe and helping her to create her own style. Ms. Bynoe will be joined by good friend and talented singer Anthony Teixeira on several duets. The two performers have collaborated on other shows including “What The World Needs Now-A Musical Tribute to Burt Bacharach” and “Anthony Teixeira sings Tony Bennett Duets with Friends.” Ruth Condon will make a cameo appearance as will Tom Tracy.

Ms. Bynoe will be accompanied by Malcolm Granger on piano, Susan Goldberg on bass, Dino Govoni on saxophone and flute, and Michael Dunford on drums.

Tickets are $75 per person, which includes a grand buffet dinner in the conservatory with a choice of first course, entrée, dessert and coffee and the show. Drinks are separate. Seating is European style.

Doors open at 6:30 PM for a meet and greet. Dinner is at 7. The show starts at 8 and ends at 9:30.

For reservations call 774-253-3099 by Monday, January 11.

The Dan'l Webster Inn & Spa is at 149 Main Street in Sandwich.